Hi Alan, Marty, and JB (FYI to Dave and Jayne),

I'm sending you a 2nd draft of the CZARA workload planning doc before sending it outside the region. Jayne and I wrapped it up this afternoon. It's just a simple overview of where we're going in the next few months re: forestry, ag, and all other CZARA conditions. I think we're in pretty good shape to move forward at a steady pace that's not going to overload us. Let me know if you have any thoughts on this.

JB, re: your comments on interim milestones, they're toned down from the previous draft. I changed my mind on how to approach this after talking with Alan. I think the feeling is that we'll gain more out of a cooperative approach in the next few months, rather than being directive, but we can be clear about what the line is, since we already laid it out in our action.
